Approved September 29, 1995
Revised August 18, 2008
Next Scheduled Review: August 18, 2010

Regulation Statement

This regulation identifies the legal basis and administrative structure for the System Offices (SO) of The Texas A&M University System (system).

Reason for Regulation

This regulation provides a concise explanation of the legal basis and administrative structure for the SO of the system.

1. LEGAL BASIS

- 1.1 The SO provide the structure through which the Board of Regents (board) administers the system members which have been placed under the board's direction and supervision.
- 1.2 The SO shall provide oversight and coordination of the activities of each member within the system. It also shall recommend necessary policies and rules to the board to ensure conformity with all laws and rules and to provide uniformity in data collection and financial reporting procedures.

2. ADMINISTRATIVE STRUCTURE

A current organizational chart for the SO is on file in the Office of the Chancellor.
