

THE TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY SYSTEM

Jerry Shelton

Senior Research Development Officer / Graphics
The Texas A&M University System

Jerry Shelton received a bachelor's degree in speech communication from Lubbock Christian University. Jerry garnered invaluable experience at various Advertising Agencies, where he specialized in graphic design. He served his alma mater, Lubbock Christian University, in two distinct roles: Director of Admissions and Director of Marketing. Other experience includes serving United Supermarkets as a graphic designer before being promoted to Director of Marketing.

Jerry began his association with Texas A&M in 2020 as a freelance graphic designer for TEES, swiftly transitioning to a full-time role in 2021. Since 2022, He has been part of The Texas A&M University System, contributing his skills and experience to the Research Development Office.

